

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR PERSONNEL COMMITTEE OF ASHINGTON TOWN COUNCIL

1. LEGAL

Unless a statutory prohibition applies, the performance of the statutory powers and functions and related work of a local council can be delegated to a committee.

This Committee is appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 101, subsection 1 (a) of the Local Government Act 1972.

The powers, duties and functions of this Committee were approved at the Annual Meeting of the Council, held on 20th May 2025.

2. CONSTITUTION

- The committee is called the Personnel Committee
- Membership includes Chair and Vice Chairs of Full Council, Finance and General Services Committee, and the Climate Change and Environment Committee.
- A minimum of 3 Cllrs must be present and voting at a meeting for a quorum to be found.
- If the number of Cllrs present falls below the required quorum, the meeting shall be adjourned, and business not transacted shall be placed before the next meeting of this committee.
- The Committee shall elect a Chair and Vice-Chair from its membership at the first meeting of the Committee after the Council's Annual Meeting.
- The Committee shall normally be clerked by the Executive Officer to the Council, who is required to advise the Committee on matters falling within its remit. However, the Committee may be required to make other arrangements for the Committee to be Executive Officered, for instance where a matter concerns the employment of the Executive Officer.
- The Committee shall hold two meetings a year, or more if necessary.
- Full Council agree the remit of the committee.
- The committee has full delegated power of decision making for those items within its remit.
- The committee may consider other issues outside its remit referred to it by Full Council.
- The committee may agree a sub-committee and the terms of reference of that sub-committee.
- As a committee a formal summons for each meeting is required, in line with council standings orders.
- A draft report of each meeting will be presented for approval at the next meeting.
